

CONFERENCE ANNOUNCEMENT

The 4th International Conference on Teaching Foreign Languages titled,

Foreign Language Teaching Amid the Challenges of the 21st Century will take place in Zalaegerszeg, Hungary, at the Zalaegerszeg College of Business Administration of The Budapest Business School on Friday, May 20th, 2016.

Venue: Building L, Infocentrum of the Zalaegerszeg College of Business Administration

Street address: 18 /A Gasparich M. u., Zalaegerszeg

Free registration for international guests

15-minute presentations or 8-minute poster presentations on the following topics are welcome:

- foreign language teaching practices (foreign languages for everyday use and specific purposes)
- LSP / FL (theory and research of language education)
- bilingual education
- student – teacher mobility
- assessment, evaluation; testing and examining
- novelty in FL and LSP teaching
- innovation in FL methodology (ICT, textbooks)
- educational policy and politics
- LSP research
- talent management
- new topics in FL education
- content based FLT
- other topics upon request

Pre-registration via e-mail by sending in a filled-in registration form is necessary.

Please send your registration form to Jarmai.Erzsebet@uni-bge.hu and Varga.Melinda@uni-bge.hu by May 1st, 2016.

Abstracts of up to 1000 characters are also due by May 1st, 2016. Notes of acceptance will be sent by May 6th, 2016. For further information please contact Edit.Berces@uni-bge.hu.

Pre-registered participants are invited for lunch - courtesy of The Budapest Business School.